

Mud Creek—South side of South Country Road at the Robinson Pond Dam in Bellport. This is a tough observation site because this is a small spillway with lots of turbulence and vegetation barriers. Fish may be observed to the sides of the spillway. Park on the shoulder of South Country Road, and be aware of oncoming traffic when walking to the observation site.