

Swan River

The first crossing is the bridge at Swezey Street, and parking is available on Sheldon Avenue. Although there is a sidewalk on the south side, it may be better to look on the north side because fish are more likely to school there because there is a vegetation barrier shown on the left. There is no sidewalk on the north side of the road so be aware of traffic.